

DAY 1: Tuesday, 21 November 2023

08:00-09:00 Registration

09:00-09:30 Opening session

09:30-10:00 Session 1: Opportunities and challenges to improve outcomes in the HIV response

10:00-11:00 Session 2: HIV Testing – The entry point for the 95-95-95 targets

10:00-10:15 Opportunities to expand HIV testing in the health system

10:15-10:35 Country examples:

- Cuba

- Argentina

10:35-10:50 Seroincidence studies – lessons for programs among men who have sex with men and trans women in Brazil and Peru

10:50-11:00 Q&A

11:00-11:30 Coffee break and networking

11:30-12:30 Session 3: STIs – New prevention strategies for a persistent public health concern

11:30-11:45 STIs among men who have sex with men and trans women

11:45-12:00 Doxy PEP for STIs

12:00-12:15 STIs in ImPrEP

12:15-12:30 Q&A

12:30-14:00 Lunch break and networking

14:00-15:00 Session 4: PrEP – Current situation

14:00-14:15 Differentiated guidelines for PrEP Provision

14:15-14:30 Situation of the PrEP in the Americas

14:30-14:45 Challenges in scaling up PrEP in Brazil

14:45-15:00 Q&A

15:00-15:30 Session 5: PrEP pipeline – What's next?

15:30-16:30 Session 6: PrEP – Key topics for implementation

15:30-15:45 Same-day PrEP is feasible

15:45-16:00 When will Latin American and the Caribbean countries have access to long-acting PrEP?

16:00-16:15 PrEP for trans women

16:15-16:30 Q&A

16:30-17:30 Session 7: Panel – Community perspective

17:30-17:45 Closing Remarks & Evaluation

DAY 2: Wednesday, 22 November 2023

08:30-09:00 Registration

09:00-10:00 Session 8: Treatment and care – Reaching the last mile

9:00-9:15 Future directions for HIV treatment - IAS2023 updates in Brisbane

9:15-9:30 The impact of same-day antiretroviral therapy initiation

9:30-9:45 Differentiated care for people living with HIV

9:45-10:00 Q&A

10:00-11:00 Session 9: New frontiers in HIV Programming

10:00-10:15 HIV testing, prevention, and care programs for migrants

10:15-10:30 New breastfeeding policies in Latin American and Caribbean countries

10:30-10:45 Late diagnostics and mortality

10:45-11:00 Q&A

11:00-11:30 Coffee break and networking

11:30-12:30 Session 10: Working towards the elimination of co-infections

11:30-11:45 Micro-Elimination of Hepatitis B and C

11:45-12:00 Gonococcal infections in Latin America and the Caribbean region, reports from the supranational lab

12:00-12:15 HIV and TB co-infections: latest updates and innovations

12:15-12:30 Q&A

12:30-14:00 Lunch break and networking

14:00-15:00 Session 11: Preventing complications of HIV and AIDS

14:00-14:15 HIV, overweight and hypertension

14:15-14:30 REPRIEVE Trial: What we need to know?

14:30-14:45 Growing older with HIV

14:45-15:00 Q&A

15:00-16:30 Session 12: Group discussion

16:30-17:00 Closing session

The programme may be subject to changes*

In collaboration with

